WHAT MAKES A MAN'S STYLE CLASSIC?

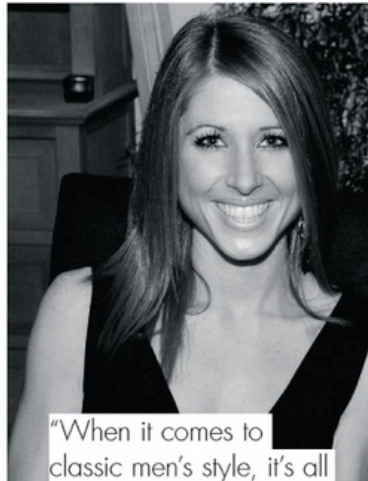

"I love a man who can pull [off] both a minimalist Don Draper—slim-fitting suit, black skinny tie, Prada shoes—and also an all-American Robert Redford, with Pendleton flannel, Levi's and work boots."

—JESSICA ELLIOTT,
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

"A sense of ease with timeless elegance and sophisticated design that [leans toward] understatement rather than showiness."

—KIM PIERCE, CONTRIBUTING WRITER

"When it comes to classic men's style, it's all about the accessories. Top off a plain tee with a fedora or some suspenders and it's instantly a look. Guys have it so easy!"

—KRISTY ALPERT,
CONTRIBUTING EDITOR

"Well it helps if the guy's crazy hot. Oh, and if he has the ability to wear 'fashion' like it's just 'clothing.'"
