TAXIS ARE SO 2008. HERE, OUR CURRENT FAVORITE PERSONAL DRIVING SERVICES THAT CAN GET YOU HOME IN STYLE.

By Kristy Alpert

Service: DrivenDFW, drivendfw.com

Why we like it: A suited, professional driver comes to your home and drives you in your own car. You can also request a specific, preferred driver.

Fleet: Your car

Average cost: $35 per hour

Service: Lyft, lyft.me

Reservation via: App

Why we like it: This company recently expanded its car service to cover more of the Dallas area, including suburban hot spots such as Southlake to Frisco.

Fleet: You never know. Drivers can show up in anything from a Cadillac Escalade to a Honda Prius.

Average cost: $20

Service: Uber, uber.com

Reservation via: App

Why we like it: Drivers notify you upon arrival, so you can comfortably wait indoors for your ride. The app also shows each driver's license-plate number and personal photo, which lends a sense of security.

Fleet: Their luxury line, UberBLACK, includes Lincoln Town Car Signatures, Mercedes Benz S550s and Cadillac DTs.

Average cost: $15

Service: My Private Driver, myprivatedriver.com

Why we like it: Their drivers are always dressed professionally, and they specialize in large-group and corporate on-demand driving. They even have a service where a team of drivers will pick up both you and your car and drive each home if needed.

Fleet: Not only can you hire a personal chauffeur to drive your car all night, but they offer everything from stretch limousines and Lincoln Town Cars to Mercedes Luxury Liners.

Average cost: $20 per hour for a personal chauffeur
